- Attend and participate in monthly meetings.
- Assist with distribution of marketing materials.
- Be a role model for teens.
- Represent the City of Mill Creek.

What are the MCYAB goals?

- Empower members with the core values of leadership, accountability, and service.
- Plan, support, and promote projects or events in our community.
- Provide members the opportunity to take leadership positions.
- Grow accountability, professionalism, and communication skills.

- Actively communicate at events & meetings.

Who should apply?

- High School students (grades 9 -12) able to commit for the 2025 - 2026 school year.
- Students who are able to dedicate 20 volunteer hours each semester (Summer-Fall) and (Winter-Spring) by attending meetings and events
- Members will attend monthly meetings on Wednesdays from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m.
- Volunteer at monthly events scheduled throughout the year, often on evenings and weekends.
- Students who are motivated, passionate, and who take initiative.
- Have leadership skills or interest in developing leadership skills.
- Have a positive attitude and passion for learning.
