Mill Creek Youth Advisory Board

2026 - 2027

Join the Mill Creek Youth Advisory Board (MCYAB):

MCYAB seeks dedicated and enthusiastic high school students to represent the Mill Creek community. MCYAB will provide opportunities to develop leadership skills through training and hands-on experience.

MCYAB Mission:

MCYAB will strengthen relations between high school students and our community by creating new programs and encouraging opportunities for youth to give back to the community.

What does MCYAB do?

Volunteer at upcoming projects and events such as Eggstravaganza, Mill Creek Festival, Parades, Trunk or Treat, and Tree Lighting.

- Attend and participate in monthly meetings.
- Assist with distribution of marketing materials.
- Be a role model for teens.
- Represent the City of Mill Creek.

What are the MCYAB goals?

- Empower members with the core values of leadership, accountability, and service.
- Plan, support, and promote projects or events in our community.

- Provide members the opportunity to take leadership positions.
- Grow accountability, professionalism, and communication skills.
- Actively communicate at events & meetings.

Who should apply?

- High school students (grades 9–12) able to commit for the 2026–2027 school year
- Students able to complete 20 volunteer hours per semester
- Students available for monthly Wednesday meetings (4:00–5:00 PM)
- Students willing to attend events (evenings and weekends)
- Motivated individuals who take initiative
- Students interested in developing leadership skills
- Positive, growth-oriented mindset

Participant Commitment Pledge:

Members are expected to earn 20 hours each semester (Summer-Fall) and (Winter-Spring) by attending meetings and events. As a MCYAB member, you will assist with planning or volunteering for fundraisers, social events, and other community events. Events occur every month, often on evenings and weekends. If you are unable to maintain volunteer hours, you will meet with the MCYAB Advisor to discuss the attendance policy. If attendance issues persist your spot will become open to a new member.

Your signature below constitutes a pledge that you understand and will follow the requirements of the Mill Creek Youth Advisory Board, and if selected, represent your school, social group, community, and the City of Mill Creek. You agree that you have read and agreed to the requirements noted above:
